WELCOME... The year is 1585. You have entered the village of Warwick, England, a small country town not far from the bustling city of London. Step through the gates of beautiful Warwick and you will soon find yourself greeted by the town's jubilant citizens, who will warmly welcome you as one of their own. Villagers both fair and foul have left their work and worry to prepare this festival day in celebration of a rare visit from Queen Elizabeth and her court as she sojourns through the English countryside.

The rules of everyday life are suspended for this special day of play and feasting. Be so bold as to join your fellow villagers in whatever amusements they have created for the day. Come along! Throw your cares and inhibitions aside, and enjoy the brotherhood, adventure, and reveling that is Warwickshire!

INFORMATION

- Need to know more about the day's events? Questions answered at the Remembrance Shoppe, located just outside the gate.
- Lost? Wandering parents may be reunited with their worried children at the Nurse's Station, on the Low Road (across from the Swan Stage and the Field of Honor).
- Hurt? If you are hurt or ill, look for the flag with the cross and go to the Nurse's Station for assistance.
- Weapons? Her Majesty the Queen has decreed that there shall be no drawing of steel on this festival day. Therefore, if you arrive with historic weaponry, the guard at the front gate will ask you to "peace tie" it into your full length scabbard or return it to your carriage.
- NEED CASH? ATM's are located where you see this sign

FORGET NOT...
The Remembrance Shoppe

Located directly outside the Festival gates, it is stocked with new and unique Festival items, including our limited edition hand-thrown stoneware mugs, fanciful T-shirts, hats, postcards, parchment maps, books and much more.
